

Peer Reviews of Teaching in the BYU Math Department

Professor evaluated: _____ Evaluator: _____ Date Submitted: _____

Course Evaluated (course number, section number, and semester): _____

Observations from the Classroom Visit

	Poor	Fair	Good	Excellent
Was the professor well prepared, well organized, and punctual?
To what extent does the professor appear knowledgeable and confident?
Does the professor make the subject relevant/interesting?
Is the professor easy to understand?
Does the professor use class time effectively/efficiently?
Is pacing appropriate?
Was the use of the board and other visual aids appropriate and effective?
Were effective examples presented?
Was the professor enthusiastic about the subject?
Does the professor hold the class' attention?
Does the professor show a personal interest in the students and their learning?
Was the professor positive and respectful?
Do the students feel comfortable asking questions and raising issues?

What comments do you have based on your classroom visit? Use extra pages if appropriate.

Observations about the Course Materials

	Poor	Fair	Good	Excellent
Does the course cover the Learning Outcomes?
Are the support materials and key information (Syllabus, Schedule, Office Hours, Contact Information, etc.) complete, well organized and readily available?
Are the assignments appropriate in content and difficulty?
Are the tests consistent with the learning objectives and appropriately challenging?
Are the tests clearly written and reasonable in length?

What comments do you have on the course materials? Use extra pages if appropriate.